CRAZY RICH ASIANS

ONLY IN THEATERS THIS AUGUST

Three Identical Strangers

91min

Tim Wardle's acclaimed documentary Three Identical Strangers is the most amazing, incredible, remarkable true story ever told. Three strangers are reunited by astonishing coincidence after being born identical triplets, separated at birth, and adopted by three different families.

Crazy Rich Asians

120min

Rachel Chu is happy to accompany her longtime boyfriend, Nick, to his best friend's wedding in Singapore. She's also surprised to learn that Nick's family is extremely wealthy and he's considered one of the country's most eligible bachelors. Thrust into the spotlight, Rachel must now contend with jealous socialites, quirky relatives and something far, far worse -- Nick's disapproving mother.

40 Years In The Making: The magic Music Movie

99min

Magic Music is one of the most fondly remembered bands of the Boulder Revolution. Living in a makeshift camp up in the mountains in the early 1970s, they would delight local residents and university students with their original songs, acoustic instruments, and light harmonies; their growing popularity brought them to the brink of success more than once.

The Cakemaker

104min

Kneading dough is an act of love in all its messy complications in Israeli filmmaker Ofir Raul Graizer's nuanced debut drama about love and loss. Broaching themes of betrayal, loneliness and exile, The Cakemaker gently explores the primal need for companionship as it transcends identity, orientation and the conventional understanding of both.
